And must have shares amounting to not less than one-third of the total paid-up shares of the Company, thus constituting a quorum.

The Moderator informs the shareholders that The Company has sent the meeting invitation letter and the agenda and supporting documents to all shareholders in advance before the meeting. The meeting agenda was announced in advance from March 21, 2022, through the information disclosure channel of the Stock Exchange of Thailand and the Company's website for allowing shareholders sufficient time to study the information supporting the meeting in advance as well as make the meeting comply with the principles of good corporate governance.

In the voting part of the meeting, the Company would like to clarify the voting and vote counting procedures as follows:

1. In voting at the meeting, every shareholder will have votes equal to the number of shares held by one share per one vote.
2. The In the case of shareholders attending the meeting in person and proxies in the form, the law requires voting operations as follows.

Before voting for each agenda, the shareholders shall sign on the ballot card. It is to ensure transparency in voting for all agendas except agenda 4. To consider and elect directors to replace those who retire by rotation, and it will explain the voting in the following order. However, if no shareholder disagrees or abstains from voting, the Company will assume the shareholders agreed, according to the number of shareholders' votes.

For shareholders who disagree or abstain from voting, shareholders must vote in the ballot provided by the Company and raise the hand for the officer to collect the ballot for counting the total votes and constitute the resolution of each agenda item.

As for shareholders who cast votes, please keep the ballot and hand it over to the staff at the end of the meeting.

However, collecting the results of each agenda, the Company will deduct the votes against or abstain from the total votes to calculate as the votes agree.

Ballots in the following manners, the vote was considered void.

- 1) More than one box marked ballot.
- 2) A voting card with a conflict of intention.
- 3) Ballot with crossed out and without signature.
- 4) Ballot that ballot exceeds the existing vote.

If the shareholders want to amend the voting, please cross out the original item and sign it every time.

3. In the case of a shareholder who provides a proxy form B and C, allow others to attend the meeting or appoint a director or independent director vote and require the proxy to vote according to the shareholders' wishes. Or that proxy, the Company has recorded the votes of agree, disagree, or abstain according to the shareholders' wants in the computer system in advance.
4. In the case of voting in Agenda 4, consider and elect directors to replace those retiring by rotation. The Company will propose to consider the election of individual directors by inviting all shareholders to vote for agreeing, disagree or abstain.

In this regard, the officer will collect ballots from shareholders who disapprove or abstain from considering each director election and collect ballots from all shareholders who vote for approval later.

5. Considering Agenda 2, 3, 4, 6, which requires a majority vote of the shareholders who attend the meeting and vote for approval or not, the Company will count "Agree" votes only.

Shareholders' vote "Disagree" will be considered that the shareholders disapprove of that agenda. If the shareholders' voting is deemed invalid, according to the criteria set by the Company, such voting will be void, invalid cards and "abstained cards" will not be taken as the base for counting.

Consideration of agenda 5 requires a vote of not less than two-thirds of the total number of votes of the shareholders who attend the meeting. And have the right to vote. The Company will count only the votes of "agree." If the shareholders vote "Disagree and Abstain," the Company will consider that the shareholders disapprove of that agenda. And the Company will use the ballot with "Abstain" as a base for counting the votes.

However, if the shareholders' voting is considered invalid following the criteria set by the Company, such a vote will be void. It is not considered a case of "agree," "disagree," and/or "abstain" voting, but the voided ballot will calculate as the basis for counting the votes.

6. Suppose the shareholders return first or not in the meeting room on any agenda; in that case, shareholders can exercise their rights by sending their voting cards in advance to company staff before leaving the meeting room.
7. If the shareholders and proxies have gradually entered the meeting room, the number of attendees and votes in each agenda may change and may not be equal.
8. In this vote counting, there is a volunteer to protect the rights of shareholders, namely, Khun Suratin Chulaolan, who attend a meeting. The Company requested volunteers, shareholders, or proxies who participated in the forum to inspect the vote count. One shareholder volunteer, Mr. Bhusit Pasatorn, the auditor of the vote counting, and Ms. Prapasri Leelasupha, a certified auditor from Sam-Ngak-ngan A M C Company Limited, witnessed the vote counting.
